The Collin Nyabadza Children's Voice Charitable Trust Child Protection Policy Document

All children and youth that the Collin Nyabadza Children's Voice Charitable Trust interacts with are entitled to:

- ❖ Those rights defined by the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child.
- ❖ An equal standard of care, protection and care regardless of their gender, religious beliefs or faith and their family's socio-economic status.
- ❖ Safety and protection from all forms of physical, emotional and sexual harm while in the care of our team, parents, teachers, legal guardians or any person.
- ❖ The highest standard of health and education possible in order for them to reach their potential to the maximum.
- ❖ To be considered first and foremost in all our dealings and at the centre of all child-serving systems.
- ❖ Participate and be heard in all issues affecting them.

OUR VISION IS THAT AID SHOULD REACH ALL NEEDY CHILDREN WE WORK WITH AND THAT ALL CHILDREN ARE GIVEN OPPORTUNITIES TO DEVELOP THEIR ACADEMIC AND SPORTING POTENTIAL TO THE FULLEST REGARDLESS OF POVERTY.
